EVENT and COMMENT.

The dwelling house of J. M. Gray, Clerk and Master of the Chancery Court at Rogersville, one mile west of that town, was destroyed by fire on the night of the 13th of June. Loss about $2,000. No insurance.

R. Y. Crittenden has been made ing so many of the loyal hearts of Marshall of Kentucky.

The fishing party attempted a parley, but they were given five minutes to leave and they did leave. Dr. Morriss is now improving. This is the heaviest case of bulldozing we have heard of, and Hayes ought to this is a nation, a united country—send us U. S, troops.

Judge Hilton, executor of A. T. Stewart, has excluded Jews from his Union Hotel at Saratoga, and the Jews swear they they will never again patronize A. T. Stewart & Co. The Rothehilds say they will avenge the insult. Judge Hilton ought to be reinsult. Judge Hilton ought to be re-fused now admission to the society of stitutions and its liberties. [Applause]. Known as the big and little bonanza gentlemen everywhere.
